Dear Bab;

Will ans. two letters to-night as I did not write yesterday.

The old man sure
was a sick woman
and I don't mean maby,
the chill and high temp until noon and then the Dr. exam. me about the time after that he says that both lungs are affected one about as bad as the other, I told him that the right one had not bothered me for over two years and he said

that it would not bother any more but it was active just the same.
and he said that I
could expect the left
one to go at any time

one thirty and that did not help my feelings any.
but I am feeling better today But cant tell what it will be to morrow, I have stoped figuring from one day to the next, like I told Dr. this a.m. he came in and asked how I felt and I told him to ask me tomorrow and I would tell him. well for the report on the exam. I cant tell you all that he told for I cant get it on paper for I never studied Medicine and so forth, But in short he said that all I had to do was to lay in bed for about four or five months and maybe I would be able to get around on the ward part of it might be a matter of days and it might ~~be~~ be a month or two. but it was sure to go, so I don't see my self coming down any ways soon, do you?

But I am not worried.
for what is to be will be regardless.

I am ever sorry to hear that you are not feeling good after your trip to the District at

I sure know what it means I sure hope that you are over it all by this time.

Yes I am sleeping pretty these nights that is if I don't sleep too much in the day time.

am sure glad sweetie that you had a nice time on your night off.

sweetheart do as you think Best about taking the days off I don't like for you to be on nights all the time but if it is easier alright and is not hurting you alright.

Love
